

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Henry Spencer, confessed murderer, identified as man who hit Benjamin Oates, 60, 117 Park Row, with hammer and then robbed of $75.

Residents of Northwest Side filed injunction suit to restrain city from occupying garbage dump.

One hundred and twenty-five divorce cases heard today.

Police hunting for Albert McDowell, 217 W. 62d st., in connection with murder of Ida Leegson. Half-breed Indian also sought.

Chas. E. Berger, 4251 W. Jackson blvd., suicide. Cut throat with razor. Ill health.

Burglars made unsuccessful raid on Metropolitan Business College, 304 W. 63d st.

Ald. Chas. E. Merriam, Rep. Hinebaugh, George Fitch, Medill McCormick and Raymond Robins will make speeches for Arthur Shay, Progressive candidate for Supreme Court from 5th district.

Policemen are protecting Mayor Harrison's garbage dump at N. Western av. and Grace st. from indignant citizens.

Health Commissioner Young will lecture on "Tuberculosis" at Holstein Park tonight.

Jacob Nathan, 18, 235 S. Halsted st., Chicago University student, fined $25 and costs for speeding.

Henry Danman seriously hurt by auto truck run by Albert Blohm, 2848 N. Drake av.

Irving Shuman, Sullivan, Ill., today took charge of $97,000,000 in Chicago's sub-treasury.

Albert Ladlee, 75, Morrison, Ill., found wandering in front of Northwestern depot.

Five men injured when 18th st. car collided with McAvoy Brewery auto truck at Jefferson st.

James Arbuckle, negro, arrested as suspect in Leegson murder case.

Corporation Counsel Sexton is drafting ordinance for unified street car system.

German-American Women's Club permanently organized last night. Mrs. Anna Schaedler elected president.

Henry Spencer will illustrate how he killed victims today.

Mrs. Elizabeth Matthew, 33, appeared at W. Chicago av. station with 4 children. Had been evicted. No money. Husband deserted her. Police collected $18.

Mayor Harrison says administration is handling vice question sanely.

Women's Central Prohibition Club hold special rally this afternoon at its headquarters, 10 N. LaSalle st.

Big police upheaval will take place Oct. 15.

Coroner's jury in Rexroat murder case recommended hanging for Henry Spencer.

Woman injured when street cars collided at Van Buren and Jefferson sts.

$8,000 worth of jewelry stolen from home of Jos. Steinberger, 5320 Michigan av.

John Healy, present executive clerk of County Hospital, being boosted for warden.

$100 taken from home of Edith Sawyer, 5822 S. Park av.

Wm. Schoerminger, tailor, 3237 Calumet av., suicide. Hanged himself.

Three safeblowers beat watchman unconscious and got $150 and $500 in checks from safe of Vail Rubber Co., 144 W. 27th st.

Mrs. Fay Foelker, 4825 Bishop st., found husband dead in gas-filled room. Suicide.

E. W. Bemis, city public utility expert, says smallest possible reduction in Commonwealth Edison rates would be $750,000.

Police have line on drug-crazed negro in connection with murder of Miss Leegson.

E. M. Skinner, sec'y of newsboys and bootblacks, warns people against giving contribution to man represent-